

Code Name: Sapphire	File Name: Unknown
Intelligence Officer	Primary Specialty: Intelligence
	Secondary Specialty: Covert Operations
	Birthplace: Unknown
	Designation: SD6L Command Staff
	Poised and efficient, the woman known only as Sapphire serves as the right-hand to Central and is crucial to the operations of Special Division Six Logistics. In addition to her responsibility planning operations, Sapphire teaches etiquette, manners, and culture lessons to new recruits. She teaches them to be chameleons who can move through different societies and cultures with seamless precision. The intensive training exercises that she puts recruits through have been known to turn wild and unruly recruits into calm, cool, and collected spies capable of disappearing into a persona. Though little is known about who Sapphire really is or where she came from, she clearly represents a clear and present danger who has been an incredible asset to SD6L and Cobra by extension. Despite extensive research, little has been learned about Sapphire's agenda or why she might be loyal to the organization. Any successful plan to shut down SD6L must account for Sapphire's sharp and analytical mind.
